And

Name of the Person Responding

Select One: Mother Father Putative Father Other: _____

Instructions: When someone files court forms with the court, they need to give copies to the other person involved in the case. The person filing the forms is called the 'filer.' This waiver of service form can be used after filing those forms with the court. It's used when the other person involved in the case wants the case to move faster by stating that they've been given copies of the other court forms you filed.

Filer: Give this form to the other person involved in the case when they agree to waive service. After you give them the documents you have filed with the court, give them this form to complete. Once they have completed this form and given it back to you, file this waiver of service form with the court.

Person Completing this Form: Complete and give this form back to the person who filed the other court forms. Please be aware that it may be in your best interest to consult with an attorney before completing this form.

Before Filing: Please be aware of the legal outcomes before you complete and file this form. To ensure you are using this form properly and that you understand the legal outcomes of filing this form, please consult the trial rules and your county's local rules.
