3. I participate in the Housing Choice Voucher/ Project-Based Voucher/ Public Housing Program. Am I eligible for the Emergency Rental Assistance Program?

- Yes, you are eligible to apply for the Emergency Rental Assistance Program. You will only be eligible to apply for funding to cover your tenant portion of the rent, and not the amount that is being covered by the federal subsidy.

4. What will rent relief funds cover?

- Emergency Rental Assistance Program funds can be used to pay for rent, utilities, home energy costs, and other expenses related to housing incurred due, directly or indirectly, to the COVID-19 outbreak. Funds can also be used to pay rent, utilities, and home energy costs arrears dating back to April 1, 2020. The program may also cover up to three months of upcoming rent based on your income and fund availability.
 - i. Acceptable utilities include electricity, gas, water and sewer, internet, trash removal, and energy costs, such as fuel oil. The program will also cover late fees on rent and utilities. You may apply for help paying for utilities even if you do not need help paying for rent.
- Utilities and home energy costs that are covered by the landlord will be treated as rent.

5. How much rent will this program cover?

- Funding is available for past due rent and utilities from April 1, 2020 to present, as well as up to 3 months future rent and utilities from the date of application. Past due rent and utilities must be documented through statements and/or invoices from your landlord and utility service provider(s). Eligible applicants will be awarded a maximum of $1,500 per month for up to six months of past due rent and utility payments. Dependent on fund availability, the County may pay up to 100% of future rent and utility payments up to a maximum of $1,500 per month.

- i. Example 1: You apply for funds to cover outstanding rent and utility costs dating back to January 1, 2020 – February 28, 2021.
 - You will not be eligible for January 1, 2020 – March 31, 2020 outstanding rent and utility costs because the timeframe is before the cutoff of April 1, 2020.
- ii. Example 2: You apply for funds to cover outstanding rent and utility costs going back to April 1, 2020 – February 28, 2021.
 - You will be eligible for up to $1,500 per month for up to 6 months of the past due rent and utilities owed and dependent on fund availability additional support. You may also be eligible for rent and utility support for the three months of future rent after you submit your application.

6. Do I have to be behind on rent to be eligible for this rental assistance program?

- No but you have to be able to show proof of economic hardship related to COVID-19 and you must have at least one past due utility. You may apply for rent relief to assist with your next three upcoming rent payments and depending on your income eligibility and fund availability, you may receive up to 100% of the three upcoming rent payments.

7. Will I be able to get help paying my rent after the first three prospective months?

- Maybe. Depending on the total amount of funds you've already received from the program, your income eligibility and fund availability of the program, you may be eligible for additional support. If you have applied and been approved for assistance with three upcoming months of payment and need additional assistance, you will have to recertify your household income/unemployment status to be eligible for additional relief.

8. Do I have to be unemployed to qualify?

- No. If you can show that you meet the household income requirements and other program eligibility criteria, you do not need to be unemployed.

9. Can I apply for funds to help with utilities and not rent?

- Yes, applicants may apply for utility payment assistance even if you do not need help paying for rent. You will need to show past due amounts owed to utility companies.

10. Can I apply for funds to help with internet service costs and not rent?

- Yes, applicants may apply for internet service payment assistance for service that has been, or will be, provided to your rental unit, even if you do not need help paying for rent. You will need to show either past due amounts owed to your internet service provider or verify the amount of upcoming payments.

12. Can I be evicted while waiting for these funds?

- Landlords are unlikely to be successful in evicting tenants for not paying rent during COVID-19 due to the federal eviction moratorium in effect through June 30, 2021. We encourage you to reach out to your landlord and maintain an open dialogue about your situation. We also encourage you to inform them of your intention to apply for rental assistance through this program.

13. What does the federal eviction moratorium do?

- The eviction moratorium halts evictions of covered persons for nonpayment of rent that may have been initiated prior to September 4, 2020, but have yet to be completed. This moratorium will stop evictions through Wednesday, June 30, 2021 for person experiencing nonpayment of rent.

14. If you are eligible for protection under the CDC Order, do you still owe rent to your landlord?

- Yes. The CDC Order does not cancel rent. You must still fulfill your obligation to pay rent and follow all the other terms of your lease and rules of the place where you live. You must use best efforts to make timely partial payments that are as close to the full payment as your individual circumstances permit, considering other nondiscretionary expenses.

15. I was evicted prior to September 4, 2020 - am I covered under the eviction moratorium?

- No. Any evictions that occurred prior to September 4, 2020 will not be covered by the eviction moratorium.

16. Where can I go to learn more about the federal eviction moratorium?

- For more information, please visit the Center for Disease Control’s website by clicking here.

17. How will my landlord get paid?

- After both you and your landlord submit all required documents and program application, the application will be reviewed for completion and program eligibility. If your application is complete and you are found eligible to receive assistance, your application will be approved for processing. Rental payments will be sent directly to the landlord based on the contact information your landlord provided.
- If your landlord does not want to participate in the program, funds will be sent directly to you as the tenant. Checks will be mailed to tenants if:
 - i. your landlord confirms in writing that they do not wish to participate in the program, or
 - ii. we have tried and failed to reach your landlord at least three (3) times.
- If you receive rental payments directly as the tenant, it will be your responsibility as the tenant to complete rental payments to your landlord.

18. How do I apply?

Email: ElkhartCountyERA@bakertilly.com

20. What is the deadline to apply?

- Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis.

21. Will the program run out of money?

- Yes. The Emergency Rental Assistance Program will end once all funds are exhausted.

22. Can I still apply if my landlord does not want to participate in the program?

- Yes, you can still apply to the program.

23. Where can I get updates on this program?

- Updates about the program can be found on Elkhart County's website at <https://elkhartcounty.com/rentalassistance>.

24. I have a mortgage, is there assistance for me?

- This program does not provide mortgage assistance payments, but there are other programs available. Information on other programs administered through the State of Indiana can be found at <https://www.in.gov/ihcda/4065.htm>.

25. Is my program award taxable?

- Generally, the Internal Revenue Service has treated similar awards as non-taxable to individuals since they are considered welfare assistance payments. However, tenants, landlords and utility providers should consult a tax professional familiar with your particular situation as these funds could be considered income/revenue.

26. I own my mobile home but pay rent on the land. Am I eligible for this program?

- Yes you can apply for rental assistance for the rental amount you pay on the land. You should provide a rental agreement in the documentation attached to your application.

27. I have a rent-to-own agreement with my landlord. Am I eligible for this program?

- Yes you are eligible as long as you or a member of your household are not the signor or co-signor to the mortgage on the property, do not hold the deed or title to the property, have not yet exercised your option to purchase. As part of your application you should upload your rent-to-own agreement.

28. I am buying a land contract. Am I eligible for this program?

- Yes, you are eligible as long as the final payment has not been made and you have not received the deed to the land.
